6. GIANT SLALOM: ALLOTMENT INTO GROUPS AND STARTING ORDER

The starting order for the various categories will be decided through a computer lottery system. First two athletes of each category are included to the first group, all the rest are included to the second group. The athletes with the best results in each category should be put on the first two places of the application form.

7. TEAM EVENT: THE COURSE OF THE COMPETITION

On Sunday, January 28, 2018 the team event will take place. This event is open to all registered participants of the giant slalom, born between 2002 and 2011. The team must be comprised of one competitor from each category: U10, U12, U14, U16 + trainer. If there the club does not have competitors in all categories, the missing spot can be filled with a competitor from lower category. Males and females will compete together.

The club must inform the organiser about possible changes in the teams registered no later than Friday, January 26, 2017, after the coaches' meeting.

Participants may only compete for the club of which they are members. It is not permitted to exchange athletes, even if one ski-club has numerous teams entered, there can be no exchange of athletes between teams belonging to the same ski club. If a team starts with a non-member participant, it will be disqualified. The organiser has the discretion to exceptionally allocate an individual racer from another club to a different club if that club is missing one racer to complete the team. The results are valid only if all participants have completed the course following the regulations and in numerical order.

The race is based on a tournament scheme. A random draw will assign teams to the blue or red track. The fastest team of two rival teams will qualify for the next round and all the way to the final. Detailed regulations will be given to all competitors at the competition itself.

9. RESPONSIBILITY

Even races for children and young people can lead to injuries. The organizers assume no liability for accidents which occur before, during or after races. Participation is entirely at the risk of the athletes, their parents and / or chaperones.

Use of a helmet during races is mandatory for all participants!

10. AWARDS

The giant slalom will be awarded from 1st to 6th place. The winning team of the team event will get a 5-day cruise for 10 people on the Adriatic Sea.

12. CHANGES IN PROGRAMME

The Organizing Committee reserves the right, if necessary, to alter the programme and race regulations.
